A note for my teacher

Is there anything you are feeling worried about?

Things I enjoy doing outside of school

The Shoe

I would like you to write a narrative (a story) with the title 'The Shoe.'

Have a think about...

Where do you want the shoe to go? What do you want the shoe to do? Who does the shoe belong to? What kind of shoe is it? What, if anything, is special about the shoe?

Draw the shoe your narrative is going to be about in the box.

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for drawing the shoe described in the narrative.

I would like you to have a think about your favourite book or a book you have recently read and create a book review.
